			Ergonomics has accepted in principle a special issue on gender from the gender and work symposia and session that will be held at IEA. We are also exploring venues for a special issue with the qualitative studies. 5. Outreach activities/others We have presented a grant request for our TC activities that was unsuccessful. WG1 is in negotiation for a joint project on gender and ergonomics with an agency involved in worksite health promotion. We have now presented a project for gender and ergonomics education at the request of the Chilean Institute for Public Health. We are waiting for a response. In the meantime, teaching activities on gender and ergonomics are ongoing in Chile. Members of the TC have been involved in several conferences, seminars, presentations on gender and ergonomics: Seminar in France (CREAPT) in May 2009; Special plenary session at the occupational health physicians' annual meeting in Tours (France) in June 2008; special presentation at the Hazards conference in England in July 2008. Participation of many members in the Women Work and Health conference at Zacatecas.
